

MYSTERIES!

The Nervous System the Seat of Life and Mind. Recent Wonderful Discoveries.

No mystery has ever compared with that of human life. It has been the leading subject of professional research and study in all ages. But notwithstanding this fact it is not generally known that the seat of life is located in the upper part of the spinal cord, near the base of the brain, and a sensitive portion of the nervous system that even the prick of a needle will cause instant death.

Recent discoveries have demonstrated that all the organs of the body are under the control of the nerve centers located in or near the base of the brain, and that when these are deranged the organs which they supply with nerve fluid are also deranged. When it is remembered that a serious injury to the spinal cord will cause paralysis of the body, and that the paralyzed portion of the nerve centers will cause the derangement of the various organs which they supply with nerve force.

Two-thirds of chronic diseases are due to the imperfect action of the nerve centers at the base of the brain, and a derangement primarily originating in the organ itself. The great mistake of physicians in treating these diseases is that they treat the organ rather than the nerve centers which are the cause of the trouble.

Dr. H. B. HARRIS, the celebrated specialist, has profoundly studied this subject for over 20 years, and has made many wonderful discoveries in connection with it, chief among them being the facts contained in the above statement, and that no ordinary mode of treatment are wrong. All headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion, pressure, blues, neuralgia, melancholia, epilepsy, St. Vitus dance, etc., are nervous diseases no matter how caused. The wonderful success of Dr. H. B. HARRIS, is due to the fact that it is based on the foregoing principle.

Dr. H. B. HARRIS, is a resident of Chicago, Ill., and his office is at 101 N. Dearborn St., direct by Dr. MILES MEDICAL CO., Chicago, Ill., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, and bottles for $5. Extra bottles, if desired, can be ordered by mail.

ENGLAND IS STILL SORE.

She Won't Let the "Alabama Case" Occur

LONDON, Aug. 20.—The Globe this afternoon applauds the government for acting with vigor in preventing a violation of the enlistment act, saying: "It is plain that it does not intend to allow another Alabama to be fitted out. We were very sure about the Alabama decision, yet there is a hint that it was in principle perfectly right."

The Globe's commendation of the government was caused by the fact that it ordered the customs officers at New Castle, Eng., to seize under the foreign enlistment act a torpedo catcher built at the Elswick works for China and to detain that vessel until she is condemned or released by process of law.

The foreign enlistment act makes it a misdemeanor to assist a foreign state at war with a friendly state by enlisting in the service, or by supplying it with war vessels or war-like stores.

VEST WON'T RETIRE.

He Denounces the Report that He Will as Unfounded.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 20.—Senator Vest will not retire from public life.

Colonel John W. Polk of this city wrote the senator, August 13, asking him if any truth was in these stories. The senator replied in a letter.

Here is the letter:

My Dear Polk:

United States senate, Washington, D. C., Aug. 19, 1894.—Yours of August 13 has just been received. About every six months regularly some newspaper publishes a statement that I am about to retire from public life. Of course all these things are manufactured for a purpose, and are without the slightest foundation in fact. I have told nobody any such thing, and pay no attention to any such statements. Whenever I make up my mind to quit public life, my friends will first know it, and in such a way that there can be no mistake about my intentions. Your friend, Colonel John W. Polk, Kansas City, Missouri.

WOULD BLOW UP CHICAGO.

A Trunk Full of Deadly Anarchist Machines Found by Inspector Conway.

CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Inspector Conway has secured a chest full of the peculiar machines used by Herlitz, Schaff, Nelson and the others of the gang of incendiary conspirators in the destruction of property in this city. He has also secured a second and smaller chest containing anarchist literature and a number of pictures of the Haymarket massacre, a copy of the painting in Oscar Nebe's saloon on the pardon of the Haymarket anarchists by the governor of Illinois. The machines are of singular construction and are well devised for the execution of the schemes of the conspirators.

They are evidently the property of anarchists and lend color to the theory of a plot for wholesale destruction of property and life.

The machines are electrical devices and are constructed upon the single coil, interrupted current principle.

The deadly nature of the machines is seen when it is known that the time of the explosion can be regulated with absolute certainty by the proper adjustment of the clockwork of the mechanism which frees the current.

NEWS OF KANSAS.

An Organized Band of Thieves Discovered at Cherokee.

Baker University Will Have a Football Team This Year.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

A Colored Man 114 Years Old Dies at Emporia.

CHEROKEE, Aug. 20.—For several months all kinds of crime have been committed in the vicinity of this place and Pittsburg. Murder, arson and burglary have been so common as to excite little comment, but the criminals were so wary that they seemed to have little trouble in evading the toils of the law.

Last January, Haines, a dry goods merchant of Cherokee, was robbed of over a hundred pieces of goods. On July 23rd Dick Davis' powder magazine was broken open and twenty kegs of powder taken. On August 1st the S. N. Collier jewelry store was looted and forty watches and chains taken. Sometimes in January the hardware store of Wild & Co., was robbed of rifles and pistols.

On Friday a part of the missing property was located in the house of Henry Young, a colored miner who came to Kansas from Alabama less than a year ago. Four officers called at Young's house and placed him, his wife and his brother-in-law under arrest. Young asked permission to go into the other room to get his shoes. Instead of putting on his shoes he took a 48 calibre Colt's revolver and departed through the back door. Of the stuff taken from Haines' store forty bolts of dress goods, a suit of clothing, a suit of boy's clothing, fifty-seven yards of unbleached muslin and three blue undershirts were recovered. Twelve kegs of powder were also found. In all, goods to the value of more than $500 were secured by the officers.

The leader of the gang is a white man, Bill Wield. Wield was traced to Pittsburg where he went in a spring wagon, carrying with him the forty watches and chains and a part of the plunder taken from the hardware store.

The negro, Young, is reported to be a desperate character, for when the authorities of Birmingham, Alabama, offer a reward of $500, for killing two policemen.

BAKER TO HAVE A FOOTBALL TEAM.

The Action of the Board of Trustees was Simply Advisory.

BALDWIN, Aug. 20.—On account of the action of the board of trustees of Baker University last June advising against intercollegiate games it has been thought by many that Baker would have no football team this fall. As several of the best players intended to go to other colleges if Baker did not have a team R. N. Allen of Chanute, president of the board of trustees, was written to for an interpretation of the board's action.

In reply he said that the action of the board was strictly of an advisory character, and the football management inferring from this that everything would be all right if conducted within proper bounds has begun to get things in shape for a first class season. Satisfactory arrangements have been made with the Denver Athletic club for a game there and Duane college of Nebraska has been secured for a date at Baldwin. It is probable that Lieutenant Smith will be made manager of the team.

A PLUCKY 5-YEAR OLD-BOY.

He Falls Into a Forty-Foot Well and Then Climbs Out.

WICHITA, Aug. 20.—A perfectly reliable but rather peculiar story comes down from the north part of the county. Mr. Robinson, a prosperous farmer who lives fourteen miles north of Wichita, has a little 5-year-old boy. While playing this little boy fell into a well forty feet deep and containing six feet of water. His mother heard his cries, apparently at a distance, and the more she searched about the premises the more distant his calls appeared. She did not for a moment think of the well. When she was almost frantic she saw the lad coming out of the well. The plucky little lad, after causing a commotion with his tiny fists, came to the surface of the water and grabbing hold of the rough masonry he climbed to the top a little frightened but still determined to stay with his world.

AFTER RUNAWAY GIRLS.

The Wichita Runaways Are Near Ft. Scott It Is Thought.

FT. SCOTT, Aug. 20.—Officers have been here several days looking for the party of four girls and two young men who ran away from their home near Wichita.

Constable Sid Blakeman of Leon, Butler county, arrived here yesterday in search of the party. During the afternoon he received a telegram from one of the girls' parents, stating that the party had taken dinner Thursday at Buffalo, a little town about seventy miles west of here. They bought a wagon cover there and are supposed to be headed for this city. The telegram stated that one of the girls had returned home, but to arrest and hold the others.

BANK WILL REOPEN SOON.

The Suspended Wichita National to Resume Business on September 1.

WICHITA, Aug. 20.—Arrangements have been completed with the depositors and creditors of the recently closed Wichita National bank, whereby it is authorized to be reopened. It is the intention that every Royal Arch Mason and his lady shall be invited, and this notice is for the purpose of requesting all such, as well as all other Royal Arch Masons temporarily in the city and who desire to attend this reception, to report their names to T. P. Rodgers at Masonic temple at any time prior to 8 o'clock p. m. on Tuesday, that arrangements may be made for their attendance.

Encouraging Home Industries.

ATCHISON, Aug. 20.—A big mass meeting of citizens and business men was held here this evening for the purpose of assisting home industries. Speeches were made by H. P. Waggener and State Senators Harvi and Edison. Enough cash was subscribed for to warrant the employment of 200 miners at once in the Donald & Ada mines recently opened, and 500 lights were ordered from the new electric light company.

His Arm Cut Off by a Train.

FT. SCOTT, Aug. 20.—John Campbell of this city was run over by an M. K. & T. train near Deerfield, and his arm cut off. It is evident from the nature of the wound that Campbell who had started for this city had sat down on the track to rest and fall asleep. His arm was cut off at the shoulder joint and his hand was severed from the arm at the wrist. His chances of recovery are considered good.

Has a Sandbar in Her Throat.

WICHITA, Aug. 20.—A young woman from the country, whose name could not be learned, came into the city yesterday in great misery. By some means a sandbar got into her throat and stuck fast there. It causes her the most intense pain and may cost her her life, as she is already prostrated with coughing, and every time she coughs the miserable weed sticks faster.

MARK TWAIN GOES ABROAD.

He Saw His Name on the Paris List and Decided to Take That Boat.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Probably the most inconspicuous passenger on the American line steamship Paris, as it was about to sail for Southampton, was a languid man with fluffy gray hair, who looked as if he had made a mistake in taking the wrong cabin. He carried an old umbrella in one hand and a crush hat done up in a newspaper in the other. A few persons recognized him as Samuel L. Clemens. He apparently was travelling as Mark Twain, professional humorist. He was somewhat late, in fact, if he had been a few minutes later he might have had to walk to Europe or take the next steamship. Somebody suggested to him that the Paris was ready to sail. He answered with his familiar drawl:

"Well, if the boat's ready to go I guess I am. I am going over to see my wife and family at Exeter, where they are supporting a couple of doctors. You see, over there when a doctor gets hold of a good patient he keeps him. They generally take you to a small place and keep you there. Then they pass you along to a friend in another place, and they keep you moving like the Wandering Jew. My wife has been doing this for three years."

"I don't dare to have even a headache after I land on the other side. But I guess I'll bring her back when I come in October."

"This is my tenth voyage in the past three years. I'm getting real fond of sailing now. After the five or six days I rather enjoy the trip."

Mr. Clemens started up the gangplank. A deck hand, who thought the gingham umbrella hardly in keeping with a first-class ticket stopped the humorist and asked:

"Are you a passenger?"

"Mr. Clemens stammered: 'I—I—don't know; but I rather think—wait a minute and I'll see.'"

Then Mr. Clemens looked over his passenger list and exclaimed triumphantly:

"Yes; I'm a passenger. Here's my name on the list. And every man, woman and child has something about it. The deck hand said something about Bloomingdale, as Mark waved him a stately farewell."

THE ISSUE IS SILVER.

Senator Teller Says Everybody Favors It—Populists Must Go.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 20.—Senator Teller arrived from Washington yesterday, and will spend his vacation of several weeks in the west. According to his idea, the coming state campaign is to be one for good government. National politics will not figure in the campaign for the reason that the only issue at stake today is the silver issue.

And woman in Colorado, of whatever political complexion is for the free coinage of silver.

"It must be apparent to every man and woman at home, and it certainly is to all outsiders who are interested in Colorado, that the Populists must go. It is not a question of the defeat of any one individual, but of the entire party."

"It is beyond the ken of any man to estimate the damage that has been done to this state by the present administration and no matter who might be upon the Populist ticket in the coming election, whether the present governor or someone else, the election of that ticket would mean a continuance of the present demoralization, if not the hastening of a climax and utter and complete ruin follow."

Speaking of national affairs he said: "Cleveland is finally setting his pins for a fourth nomination, but does not stand a ghost of a show to get it." Senator Hill, he thinks, is the coming man of the Democratic party, and has of late become very much stronger politically than he was a year ago.

CHINESE USE STINK POTS.

A Bloody Battle Fought in Which 1,000 Chinamen are Killed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—The Examiner prints the following special: SINGAPORE, Aug. 3.—A bloody battle has just been fought at Songh Wan. This place is the headquarters of the Japanese General Oshima, and is one of the most important villages of the kingdom.

The Chinese have very strong fortifications at Songh Wan, and 17,000 troops are said to be stationed there. The Japanese were determined to capture the place and provisions and baited the army by a clever bit of intrigue. They marched back to A-San, and in fact they did parade for a considerable distance in that direction, but no sooner were they convinced of the success of their scheme in making the Chinese believe they had left the settlement than they marched with a rush straight up to the fortifications, attacking them in a body.

They made a clean sweep of everything in the course of five hours' fighting. The Chinese were unprepared for it, and for the sake of truth be it known, that is how the war was fought.

They were "Chin-Chining" the war joss—there they were, the war joss, and firing crackers off to a big wooden deity set upon a cannon ball. About 1,000 Chinese were killed in the engagement and 70 Japanese.

The Chinese with their usual cowardice deserted many of the Fab Kwai, (fourth devil officers), and when given orders to resist the advance of the enemy turned and fell upon their swords, preferring to commit suicide rather than be murdered by the Japanese. The Japanese men and officers fought like tigers.

Some of the methods of warfare used were ridiculously gruesome and harrowing. For instance, the Chinese, it is told, used old-fashioned stink pots (bowls slung on poles and filled with sulphuric acid and other bad smelling, deadly acids which kill perhaps more quickly than a rifle shot.)

One stink pot cast in among a dozen soldiers kills every man inside of a few seconds. The Mongols also resorted to wooden axes and to long bamboo poles. Many of them threw their guns away deliberately when they caught a glimpse of the enemy surrounding them like a demon-cloud.

It is impossible accurately to describe the barbarities which these people practice in their methods of war and also in their penal punishments in times of peace.

A FINANCIAL PANIC FEARED.

Capitalists Expect to Make Large Profits by a Panic.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 21.—A panic is feared in Japanese financial circles on account of the Korean imbroglio, say the Japanese papers. The banks have suspended their loans, while deposits are being fast withdrawn. Capitalists are unwilling to invest, as they expect to have an opportunity of making large profits through the panic. The money market is now very stiff. This condition is due to the belief that the present war will be far greater and more expensive than the Satsuima rebellion.

Already popular subscriptions have been opened in Japan to raise money for the support of troops in Korea, and also to provide for the families of reserve soldiers who have been called into active service. In many cases these families are left destitute, as the money supply has stopped. About $50,000,000 had been donated for this purpose prior to August 1, and money was coming in quite rapidly.

NICELY SHADED MAPS.

To Show Just Exactly How Political Parties Tamify.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—With the close of congress, the managers of the congressional national campaign committees are preparing for the fall campaign with much energy. Senator Faulkner, at the head of the Democratic committee is directing his efforts toward holding a Democratic majority in the house of representatives.

Extensive headquarters are in operation with the executive work in charge of Secretary Lawrence Gardner. The work thus far has been in preparing full statistics of districts, writing the campaign book and in circulating documents.

The campaign book is about half completed. It will be a volume of about three hundred pages, showing the work of congress and the reforms claimed to have been made in the departmental service. It will be furnished to speakers as a text for their efforts on the stump. The statistics gathered are the most elaborate ever undertaken by the committee.

They show not only the votes by counties for the last four congressional elections, but in close districts the figures are carried to townships. In addition to the numerical vote a system of percentages has been adopted, by which the percentage of gain necessary to secure a loss threatening defeat can be exactly determined.

Another plan of ready reference is by shaded maps at districts in which the various colors show the strength of Republicans, Democrats, Populists, Prohibitionists, etc., with the figures as to the vote of each party.

Campaign speakers will not be sent out until the committee has selected a nominee will be left to secure his own speakers. If however a weak spot is developed, where speakers are few the national committee will undertake to supply the orators.

LOOKING INTO THE CRATER.

Government Scientists Examining the Smoking Vents of Popocatepetl.

CITY OF MEXICO, Mexico, Aug. 20.—The government expedition of scientists now on the summit of Popocatepetl is making good progress in its surveys and study of the volcano. The altitude is 19,000 Spanish feet above the level of the sea, and the circumference of the crater is 14,000. An elaborate study is being made of the smoking vents of the volcano and the general deposits in the crater, as well as the geological formation of the mountain and the botanical specimens encountered on its lofty slopes.

Donald Stewart returned last night from the expedition, with which he spent several days for the purpose of looking into the feasibility of constructing a wire tramway from the base of the volcano to the sulphur mines in the crater, he thinks it is possible to construct a tramway for freight and passengers, but has not entirely studied the obstacles to be encountered and the difficulties to be overcome.

The tramway would be over ten miles in length, and the longest line of the kind in the world.
